

Azle HS Mini Cheer Camp - PK - 6th Grades

AHS mini cheer camp is an exciting and energetic camp designed for young aspiring cheerleaders to learn the fundamentals of cheerleading in a fun and supportive environment. Children grades K-6 will focus on basic cheer techniques, including motions, jumps, chants, and dance routines. Participants will also develop teamwork, confidence, and school spirit while engaging in interactive games and activities. Led by the AHS cheer coaches and high school cheerleaders, the camp provides an opportunity for kids to build friendships, improve coordination, and showcase their skills in a final performance for family and friends.

Whether beginners or those with some experience, all participants will leave with a greater love for cheerleading and a memorable experience full of fun and enthusiasm!
